

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY
THE OPEN SOURCE ADVENT CALENDAR DEC 2016			1 Share this calendar to encourage others to practice open source this month	2 Review an outstanding gerrit or pull request	3 Answer a question or two on a user forum	4 Remember & relive a satisfying technical problem you solved this year
5 Review and improve some documentation in your codebase	6 Improve the UX for a feature or API	7 Measure some new metrics on your code quality	8 Submit a well written bug or feature report	9 Pick an old bug to try to resolve	10 Tweet out a great feature of an open source project	11 Send some appreciation to maintainers of a projects you use
12 Do some exploratory testing on a feature	13 Write a new unit test or two	14 Read or watch a video about some new technology you want to try	15 Try out some new technology or framework	16 Write a blog post about something you've learnt recently	17 Plan to attend a meetup or conference next year	18 Practice deep breathing for dealing with opinionated users
19 Triage some newly submitted issues	20 Make some progress on a bug you've been meaning to work on	21 Thank all the contributors on the project you are working on	22 Improve some code quality today	23 Share your experiences with open source with a fellow developer	24 Brainstorm talks to give at an open source conference or mee-tup	25 Enjoy your day & pat yourself on the back for all your open-source work

Download a copy from www.kichwacoders.com/2016/12/01/os-advent-calendar Find great open source projects at www.eclipse.org